

Educational Seminars

Stay informed.

Free seminars to keep you
and your staff up to speed.

HELPING YOU WITH THE BUSINESS OF YOUR BUSINESS.

There is more to running your business than just knowing your products.

You have to keep informed about the changing laws and regulations, and how they affect you and your employees. We feel it is our responsibility to help try to keep you informed of the important changes that can affect your business.

FREE SEMINARS

We offer several free seminars every year dealing with diverse topics like:

- › Annual New Law Review
- › Sexual Harassment Prevention Training
- › The Most Common Mistakes Employers Make When Hiring
- › Recent Changes in Workers Compensation Laws
- › Retirement Plans and Investing
- › Estate Planning and Business Perpetuation
- › Self Insurance
- › 1099 Independent Contractors

BRING WHOMEVER YOU LIKE

You can send your staff members, or attend yourself.

Either way, it's free, fairly painless and usually quite informative. We hire professionals in the field to speak about the topics in which they are most knowledgeable. Most seminars are held near the Burbank Airport, so they are convenient to attend. We generally hold morning seminars from 9:00 am to Noon.

FEEL FREE TO ASK QUESTIONS

This is a great opportunity to get any question you might have answered by professionals.

Obviously, many of these topics are connected to Insurance, and we always have staff members on hand to answer any insurance related question, or provide advice about how to properly protect yourself in the event that something unplanned for happens.

STAY INFORMED.

Take advantage of the frequent, free educational seminars that United Agencies provides to keep you and your staff up to date on legal changes and how they affect you.
